

Coach

Division One Report - Week 24

Category : General League News

Published by John Alsop [\[Admin\]](#) on 13/03/17

Revolution B secured a comfortable win beating St Neots A 7-3 with Kevin Bird picking up a hat-trick, Martin Walters a brace and a singles win for Mike Perry. Perry and Bird also won the doubles beating Mick Gaunt and Rob Adamson. Mick picked up a brace for St Neots and Rob chipped in with a singles win against Mike. Biggleswade hosted Revolution A and the visitors left with a 7-3 victory thanks to hat-tricks for Keith McConnell and John Alsop who also picked up the doubles. Nick Hart, Richard Steele and Harvey Cross all beat Ian Baldock playing up from the B team. Elstow picked up an 8-2 win at Phoenix with hat-tricks from Tom Nowakowski and Dave Beddall. John Simms won his singles against Adrian Volvovics. Tim Kirby and Mark Conway both beat John. The evening was rounded off with a close five sets in the doubles which Nowakowski and Beddall won against Kirby and Conway. Marston picked up a much needed win against St Neots B who could only field two players. Minesh Pitamber beat both Dan Bullen and John Mitchell. Gerald Ridgway bagged a victory in straight sets against Dan and Mo Duncan picked up a singles win beating John in five. St Neots gained its points with a win for Dan against Mo and John beating Gerald 13-11 in the fifth. Pitamber and Duncan combined to win the doubles.

Report by Dave Beddall