Revolution B and Marston completed the season with a draw thanks to a hat-trick from Richard Elliott and a win for both Martin Walters and Trevor Beard against Mo Duncan. Mike Wilkins and Dave Wackrill bagged a brace each before combining to take the doubles beating Walters and Beard. The result confirmed Marston's bottom placing in Division One. St Neots B could only field John Mitchell against Elstow A. He beat John Simms to pick up a solitary point in a 9-1 defeat. Biggleswade hosted Phoenix A and came out 7-3 victors as Harvey Cross, Tim Bliss and Nick Hart all bagged a brace. There was an excellent win for Mark Conway who beat Nick in five sets to complete hat-trick. Finally Revolution A sealed the title for the season with a draw against St Neots A. Keith McConnell secured his hat-trick and confirmed top spot in the single's averages for the first time losing only four matches all season. John Alsop bagged a brace but was beaten in five by Marek Mastalerczyk ending up second in the averages. Marek, Rob Adamson and Mick Gaunt all beat Martin Walters and the draw was sealed as Mastalerczyk and Gaunt beat Walters and McConnell in the doubles.
